RECEIVED
FEDERAL ELECTION
COMMISSION
OFFICE OF GENERAL
COUNSEL
2006 MAY 15 A 9:34

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am a registered voter and citizen in Guilford County, NC and I reside in Congressional District 13. I follow my politics closely and often watchdog candidates to make sure they are all fighting fair. I often use the FEC website for tracking campaign contributions. This is where I discovered that a candidate in my district appears to be breaking the FEC laws. While checking contributions for candidate Vernon Robinson (Robinson for Congress) I came across 10 instances on your website (http://query.nictusa.com/cgi-bin/can\_ind/2005\_H4NC05138) where contributors gave more then the allowed $2100 per election cycle. Most gave $4200 and in each case the Robinson campaign designated the money only to his primary. It is my understanding, from talking with a representative at the FEC two days ago, that this is illegal unless the campaign designates half to the primary and half to the general election. I am requesting a full investigation into this matter with the Robinson for Congress campaign and their treasurer Emily Cummins.

Sincerely,

Jayson A. Ovittore 5/9/06
